A KNITTER

Knitting socks, with an ocasional sweater to relieve the monotony, for the soldiers, is the method of passing the time between scenes adopted by Carmel Myers, the popular Bluebird star.

During the making of the new Bluebird, "The Wine Girl," which will be shown at the Grand Theatre on Monday, Carmel Myers organized a knitting club among the women extras in the studio with the result that two dozen pairs of socks were sent to the soldiers at Camp Kearney, near San Diego, California, as the result of "The Wine Girl's" efforts.

Do not fail to see the last episode of "The Hand of Vengeance"

REMEMBER RED CROSS

Subscriptions For Christmas Enrollment Will be Taken Monday—Campaign Practically Over—Final Reports Monday Night.

The Red Cross Christmas Roll Call which has been in progress since last Monday practically ends tonight, although the work of enrolling members will be to continued Monday by those in charge and it is hoped that all who have not yet availed themselves of the opportunity of enrolling in this organization will do so between now and Monday.

Announcement also was made today that the work will be continued among the school children for junior memberships after the public schools reopen, immediately following the Christmas holidays.

The women and men who have been identified with the work of enrolling members for the Red Cross have worked hard and their efforts were crowned with success although many are of the opinion that the enrollment might have been much larger had everyone who could afford to enrolled. It is, therefore, hoped that those who have overlooked the Christmas Roll Call will come forward between now and Monday and help Alexandria make a record in its membership list.

The enrollment up to noon was in excess of 2,100 members. Many of those engaged in the work are ill with severe colds, having contracted them while soliciting Red Cross memberships and their illness has somewhat retarded the progress of the work.

Final reports on the work will be made Monday night.

Provost Marshal General Crowder is of the opinion that the work of the American Red Cross will be increased rather than diminished by the arrival of peace. Discussing the Christmas roll call of the Red Cross recently he made the following statement regarding the necessity of the organization continuing its work abroad and at home:

"The need of the Red Cross does not terminate with the cessation of hostilities—rather are its usefulness and its scope increased. With the war at an end, the Red Cross must turn its hand to the rehabilitation of devastated Europe, not only in the late theatres of operation but in all those fields just delivered from hostile occupation and among all those people who for more than four years have felt the heel of German oppression. To embarrass its activities at this time is to add misery to suffering."

A BRILLIANT SUCCESS

Christmas Dance Given by Q. M. C., of Humphreys at W. C. C. S. Club Last Night—Hall Beautifully Decorated—150 Couples Attend.

One of the most brilliant parties of the season was that of the Quartermaster's dance last night given by them in the War Camp Community Hall. For the past two days a decoration committee under the direction of Sergt. D. F. McCarthy, assisted by Corporals Roy R. Blakely and Maurice Persson have been busy dressing up the assembly hall of the club, and every inch of the walls and stage were covered with flags, holly, running pine and other Christmas greens. Two large Christmas trees one on each side of the stage were decorated with tinsil, ornaments and electric lights, the stage and orchestra almost wholly hidden by a mass of fresh gathered holly. It was stated by all that the hall had never before been decorated quite so profusely or artistically and much credit is due Sergt. McCarthy and his assistants. There were committees or every requirement as published previously all under a general committee consisting of Lieut. J. M. Hammond, chairman, Sgts. H. E. Richardson, F. S. Unsell and Daniel Raymond. The hall presented a beautiful scene as the hundred and fifty couples circled about the smooth floor, dotted here and there by the conventional dress suit of the civilian, the larger number of smart uniforms of the men of the regiment and the galaxy of color lent by the ladies for the most part in evening dress. Altogether the affair was a fitting function to usher in the Christmas and New Year holiday season. Aside from the dancing, the men furnished refreshments which were dispensed during the intermission, consisting of ice cream, cake, and a delicious fruit nad grape juice punch. The decided success of the evening reflects much credit upon all who participated in the preparations and outcome of the party.

The War Camp Community Service announces the usual dance to be given for men in uniform tonight, the sleeping accommodations and the excellent breakfast for Sunday morning, so generously prepared by the good ladies of our churches and so much appreciated by the men. This is to be a Community Sing Christmas Eve, and a dance and entertainment for the men Christmas night also the dance following Saturday night and for the men who do not dance, ladies, constituting a federation of churches headed by Miss Commings are to have an entertainment in the Christ Church Parish House on Saturday evening, December 28.

WM. FARNUM TONIGHT

When a great writer produces a new masterpiece the whole reading world rushes to get copies of it. It is the talk of every book reading center. A like feeling comes when we speak of William Farnum's latest photoplay masterpiece "The Rainbow Trail." which will be presented at the Richmond Theatre tonight.

Mr. Farnum's reputation for good clean thrilling dramatic pictures cannot be equalled. "The Rainbow Trail," is a sequel to "Riders of the Purple Sage," both of which as books are written by Zane Grey.

Mr. Farnum, as usual, does splendid work in the dual role he plays in "The Rainbow Trail." He makes the love theme stand out and gives it a heart which thrills with sentimental interest. He fights for himself and for those he loves as only William Farnum can fight on the screen.

SAW HUN FLEET SURRENDER

Virginia Flyer Watched Event From Air

Danville, Va., Dec. 21.—Richard P. Sanford, son of the Rev. T. Ryland Sanford, of Chatham, Va., passed through here Wednesday, on his way home after six months' service as an aviator abroad. He arrived in New York a few days ago on board the Maurutania and told an interesting eyewitness account of the surrender of the German fleet and its journey up Scapa Floe, which he witnessed from an airplane.

Sanford was attached to an American aviation camp on the Firth of Forth, near Edinburgh, and on hearing that the fleet was coming in he went aloft with an instructor and remained in the air an hour and a half, flying at a low altitude above the German warships.

Sanford was sent to France but did not get to the front. He was in two bad falls, the instructor with him being killed on both occasions. The only damage sustained by the Virginian during his six months' service was a broken nose.

PRICES GO OVER THE TOP

Small Volume of Country Produce in Market With Prices at High-Water Mark—Christmas Trees in Abundance.

Notwithstanding today is Saturday before Christmas, the offerings this morning in market were slim, with prices high and as firm as Gibraltar. The displays of poultry were meagre, and it was being offered at about the same prices which have ruled during the past few weeks. A few jags of fresh pork were on the benches of country people which was being disposed of at prices maintained by the butchers. Some rabbits were held at 75c each. Vegetables were unchanged in prices.

Most of the offerings in the market court this morning consisted of Christmas trees, and judging from the display and the slow manner in which they were being disposed of, the owners are likely to find themselves overstocked. Prices of trees have made a great leap since last Christmas. The reason, according to those who brought them to the city, is the scarcity of suitable trees.

The butchers had average displays of meats, and some fish were on the benches.

Most of the larders in these days are supplied by the larger grocery stores, and consequently there was a limited number of buyers as well as sellers present this morning.

BRUTALITY OF PAES

Former Premier Costa Implies That Assassination Was Deserved.

Paris, Dec. 21.—Five thousand Portuguese citizens have been held as secret political prisoners for more than a year, Alfonso Costa, former Portuguese premier, declared in an interview with the Matin yesterday.

The suffering of these men, who were whipped and otherwise tortured, were responsible for the murder of Sidonio Paes, President of Portugal, it was intimated. Some of the victims of this modern inquisition were even executed, Costa said.

The prisoners, according to Costa included former ministers, former presidents of the chambers, senators, deputies, officers, soldiers and sailors. They have been imprisoned since the Paes coup d'etat in 1917.

He said he had revealed only a part of Portugal's sufferings, which, he said, explain the recent acts of violence.

VIENNA IN FAMINE'S GRIP

Vatican Transmits to Entente Note Describing Serious Conditions.

London, Dec. 21.—Serious conditions in Vienna because of lack of food and textiles there are reported by the chief of the British mission to prisoners of war in Austria, now in the Austrian capital, according to a Vienna dispatch.

Starving mothers in the Austrian capital are unable to obtain milk for their children, and the babies are dying by hundreds, the message states. The mothers also are without swaddling clothes for their infants, and are obliged to wrap them in rags or even newspapers.

PRESIDENT'S PURPOSE

Will Visit Allied Countries and Learn By Personal Contact as Much as Possible as to Their Chief Problems—Anxious to Visit England.

London, Dec. 21.—The London Times today published an exclusive interview with President Wilson, cabled by its special correspondent in Paris.

Asked what, in his mind, was his great purpose of the conference, and the great goal toward which the delegates would strive, the President said:

"I think the plain man in the street can answer that as well as I can. The plain people of all nations are now looking with anxious expectations toward Versailles, and I am sure they are asking themselves this one question:

"'Will there be found enough of wisdom and purpose among the statesmen there assembled to create a safeguard against future wars?'

The first question asked by the interviewer was why the President had come to Europe. To this Mr. Wilson replied:

"It is obvious that the forthcoming conference is of such overwhelming importance that the United States cannot refuse to share with the allies the great responsibilities for civilization.

"It is only by the frankest personal consultation with the statesmen of the allied countries that I can, in some measure, assist in the solution of these problems.

"I hope to confer in the near future not only with the allied statesmen, assembled in France, but also to visit the allied countries and there learn by personal contact as much as I can of the general sentiments with regard to the chief problems.

"I am anxious to go to England because I have reason to know with what unanimity and with what passion of conviction the people of Great Britain and America have entertained the same conception of liberty and and justice.

"It is essential to the future peace of the world that there should be the frankest possible co-operation and the most generous understanding between the two English-speaking democracies."

The President is further quoted as saying:

"W ecomprehend and appreciate, I believe, the great problem which the war was brought to the British people, and we fully understand the special international questions which arise from the fact of your peculiar position as an island empire."

The President, the interviewer adds, discussed the freedom of the seas in a solid tone of sincerity, and in the frank manner.

President Wilson, according to the Times correspondent, is convinced that nothing possibly can prevent the approaching conference from producing what all the world wants—really solid guarantees of peace in the future.

NEW HEALTH ORDINANCE

Mayor Fisher yesterday signed the health ordinance which automatically makes the person in charge of the United States Public Health Service the Public Health Officer for the city of Alexandria. The Mayor in handing us the ordinance for publication alluded to the fact that in a public statement made by him and published in the Gazette Thursday, November 21st, last, he used the words "I will not be a party to placing a United States soldier in charge of our domestic affairs," and added that while he has not changed his mind as to the wisdom of such selection, yet, under the circumstances now prevailing and the pleasant and modest manner in which Doctor Sandidge has assumed his duties, a manner polite and gracious, which has impressed itself upon citizen and official alike, he (the Mayor) would not feel justified in failing to place upon such appointment the seal of unanimity.

Mr. Fisher refers to the fact that in both branches of the City Council the amended ordinance received every vote, a number sufficient to pass the ordinance over his veto, and he had no doubt such would be done, but all this is no wise has influenced his action in signing the ordinance.

In conclusion the Mayor said he believed Dr. Sandidge will try to minimize expenses of the Health service and this belief he hopes will be written into facts as disclosed in the future.

THE HORRORS OF FAMINE

Twenty million human beings will die of starvation the first four months of 1919! Five millions of men, women and children, principally children, will die each month! As many human beings will perish of hunger in each of those months as were killed or died of wounds in four years of war.

Death toll of war was 5,000,000. Famine death toll in four years of war was 20,000,000. Four died at home of starvation to every one who died in battle or hospital.

War's famine horror was as nothing compared to the death roll of the next four months' famine, predicts United States food administration.

"Despite all we can do," officially announces the food administration, "it is expected 10,000,000 human beings in the north half of Russia will starve to death. Food cannot be gotten to them."

"Terrible famine conditions are sure in Poland, Serbia, Bohemia and Finland. Next to northern Russia. Armenia will experience the worst conditions."

Some food will be sent into Poland, Bohemia, Finland and Serbia, and the starvation death roll will be kept down, but it is estimated that in these countries and Armenia more than 5,000,000 will starve.

A Word with Women.

Valuable Advice for Alexandria Readers.

Many a woman endures with noble patience the daily misery of backache, pains about the hips, blue, nervous spells, dizziness and urinary disorders, hopeless or relief because she doesn't know what is the matter.

It is not true that every pain in the back or hips is trouble "peculiar to the sex." Often when the kidneys get congested and inflamed, such aches and pains follow. Then help the weakened kidneys. Don't expect them to get well alone.

Doan's Kidney Pills have won the praise of thousands of women. They are endorsed at home—Read this Alexandria woman's convincing statement.

Mrs. Milton Moor, 123 Duke Street, says: "Doan's Kidney Pills are a household medicine for kidney trouble in our family. I have taken them on several occasions for backache and other kidney disorders with every beneficial results. I am quite sure Doan's will help anybody who gives them a good trial. I know they are a medicine of merit."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Moor had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfgrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

VIRGINIA NEWS

Spanish influenza is raging smock in a home for children, conducted by the Children's Home Society, at Richmond. Sixteen cases have developed in the last two days.

Maynadier Mason, a lineal descendant of George Mason, of Gunston Hall, author of the bill of rights, died yesterday at Charlottesville. Mr. Mason was a son of Major Robert P. Mason, a Confederate soldier.

At a meeting of the trustees of Hampden-Sydney college at the Jefferson Hotel in Richmond yesterday afternoon Dr. J. E. Eggleston, former superintendent of instruction of Virginia, was elected president of Hampden-Sydney. For the past five years Dr. Eggleston has been president of V. P. I.

In the circuit court of Campbell county at Rustburg last night, the jury, after being out four hours in the case of Mabon T. Wright, a soldier charged with the murder of Miss Rosa Farmer, near her home at Bococks, November 19, reported that they were unable to agree and were dismissed. It is understood that the jury stood 8 for first degree murder and 4 for acquittal. The case had been on trial for two days.

The army transport Martha Washington, bringing home the 118th field artillery, passed Cape Henry, a mile off shore last night and should arrive in Newport News today. The residents and soldiers at the cape fort were brought to the beach by a mighty shout, which was followed by cheering for a quarter of an hour as the transport passed the Cape Henry lighthouse, the men giving way to their joy on beholding the steady rays of the great light that meant they were within a few hours ride of American soil. The transport Mercury, accompanying the Martha Washington, has not been sighted as yet.

Good Will Given a New Impetus

A statement of Dodge Brothers war activities is due the owners of their cars.

Dodge Brothers refrained, during the progress of the war, from any reference to the performance of the car in Government service.

It seems proper now, however, to disclose the facts, because they are unusual facts—intensifying that good will which owners of Dodge Brothers Cars have always manifested.

Dodge Brothers car was the only one of its class approved and adopted by the War Department.

In a separate Ordnance Works, built especially for the purpose, costing millions of dollars and employing thousands of their skilled motor workmen, Dodge Brothers undertook an important duty designated by the War Department.

Without the aid of their great motor organization, Dodge Brothers could not have fulfilled the heavy obligation which they were asked to assume by the Ordnance Department.

The other service required of Dodge Brothers motor works, by the Government, was to continue to furnish their cars as they were needed.

They were furnished, not in hundreds, but in thousands—both for the training camps here, and for service in Belgium, France and Italy.

The record of those thousands of camp and army cars is one in which any owner may feel the utmost pride and satisfaction.

Their performance justified the compliment implied in their selection by the Government.

The great works in which nearly three hundred thousand of their cars have been produced in the past four years furnished a vast store-house of human energy and equipment for the ordnance work.

Naturally, it will take time to adjust the motor works to its full accustomed activity.

Gradually Dodge Brothers will resume the grateful task of continuing to deserve the good will of America—and indeed of the whole world.

Dodge Brothers consider good will their most valuable possession.

They will never knowingly do anything to lessen it.

RUINED FOR GENERATION

"Germany is ruined for generations, politically industrially and economically," Dr. Walter Rathenau, president of the German General Electric Company, is quoted as declaring to the Berlin correspondent of the London Daily Express. "It is the greatest calamity that has happened to any country in 2,000 years," added Dr. Rathenau, who is one of the largest employers of labor in Germany. "If the indemnities are high, we shall have nothing with which to expand our industries, and there will be a great tide of emigration, probably to South America, the Far East, and certainly to Russia. The result will be the Balkanization of Europe."
